God damn... why can't you people ever be precise and specific? Which postings, what do they say and where do they go to Debbie Lee? Are you going to tell everybody what we think and what our motives are because you're a frigging telepath and can tell what we think? Let me make this perfectly clear. My personal motive for my actions (I don't speak for all WNs) is the currently going on genocide against White Europeans. And 'action'... I will act to build a Whites Only homeland (only Whites and odd Japanese tourists allowed), just like Indians have their own exclusive reserves (paid for by White Canadian tax dollars) and Jews have their own ethnically Jewish state of Israel (even though there may be Arabs in Israel, they have no real say in anything), paid for by German and American tax payers.

"We need to take a social and moral stand against the statement they are making."

Hey, if that's the statement Randy Richmond quoted:

art, to which I directed possible graphics houses employers to see my portfolio and Bell also deleted all of my LScript programs, which I also knew for a fact, were used by many LightWave 3D users as I had hundreds of helpful examples and ready to use practical plugins. I was named one of the top 10 (or was it top 5) LScript developers in the world by one magazine. I'd have to do a little digging around to find the name of that Bell asshole who knuckled under to a little Jewish style pressure and pulled the plug on me but... eh, it's not like I didn't have a backup. Do you know how upset I'd get if I didn't have a backup and you destroyed 5 years of my work?

Yesterday's call for action was not an attempt to pressure police to act quickly but to raise public awareness, Warman said.

Oh really? Jews never pressure police or other institutions to do anything. I wonder if London ON cops have had anti-racism lectures from ADL kikes yet. No? Hey, I think the Jews offer them for free. Here you go London cops, point your browser to www.adl.org to learn more. They'll tell you who the 'hater' is. Hint hint, not the serial negro rapist... but the white guy who's fighting for the white race's survival. Who was it that pressured the Swiss banks to cough up 6 BILLION dollars allegedly stashed away in mythical Jewish bank accounts set up by Jews expelled from Germany during WWII, right before they were allegedly hauled off to the mythical gas chambers or turned into soap and lampshades? I think we all know the answer to that. Like tactics by like kind of people.

What Randy Richmond didn't write is what Mr. Warman said on CBC radio. In a radio interview Mr. Warman says he "hopes the police will do their job.", if memory serves me right. Of course what I suspect he meant there is that he hopes they arrest me and throw me in prison... for fighting to preserve the WHITE EUROPEAN CREATOR RACE.

Jeezus good luck Thexder I just read this on a commie website - let us know how it goes!

Hate Complaint Against London Man Referred to Tribunal

The Canadian Human Rights Commission (CHRC) has referred two hate propaganda complaints for hearing to the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal. The complaints were filed by Ottawa lawyer

Richard Warman against London-resident Tomasz Winnicki.

The original complaint filed in September of 2003 concerned hate propaganda attacking the Christian, Jewish, black, and homosexual communities posted by Winnicki onto his Mom's personal Bell Sympatico website, the website forum of London-based group the Northern Alliance, and onto US neo-Nazi forum VNN.

Retaliating against individuals who have filed human rights complaints constitutes a separate offence under the Canadian Human Rights Act. The CHRC also referred a subsequent retaliation complaint against Winnicki to the Tribunal for hearing after he posted material on the Internet attacking Warman for having filed his original complaint.

If the complaints are upheld, Winnicki may face a permanent cease and desist order enforceable by contempt of court proceedings, and/or fines and damages. Tribunal hearing dates are anticipated in late spring or early summer.

I once got locked up in Canada for a few days. I wont get into too much detail for obvious reasons. I got hauled off, after a surprise visit to my car which had the key in the ignition, as I was sleeping after a night of partying. There was a 6-pack with an open bottle in there, in the vehicle. They immediately handcuffed me and took me to the precinct and tried to get a breathylizer test and a blood test which I unconditionally refused both, for fear of getting popped for a moving vehicle violation, true to my distrustful nature.

My mistrust was proven reliable when I was thrown into the cooler which is a cage with a concrete slab and an air conditioner blowing cold air into the cell. By the way, Canada did sign the Geneva Convention and other protocols. Didn't they? Since it was summer, I had only shorts on, thus requested my t-shirt and perhaps something additional. They unconditionally refused until the preliminary trial came up and they gave me my t-shirt again, because of repect for the presiding judge who was female. Before the hearing, the district attourney read me the arresting officer's trumped-up statement claiming that I was resisting arrest in a violent manner and was uncouth towards the officers at every step of the process.

At the hearing, I denied everything and explained the reason for my unwillingness to cooperate with the tests. I was to be released on bail. Since I didn't have this amount of money, at the time of arrest, I was chained at the ankle with other prisoners and taken to the county jail. I was told that I would be kept there until my trial date the following year, if I didn't come up with bail 1st. After a few days, I got the impression that they weren't bluffing, thus had the time and place for me. So, I made that phone call and got someone to bail me out.

What I heard from others, in the cell, confirmed the impression I got. All along, I had once thought Canada was a civilized country, until I scratched the surface. The only reason they're crime rate is lower than ours is probably due to the Draconian sentencing for breaking laws that were founded as a Victorian commonwealth country. If you get caught at the border smuggling drugs, you got 10 years time in the US and double that in Canada.

I've heard about being in the wrong place at the wrong time in Amerikwa, but these humbugs usually happened to Yankees wandering around in the deep South. I was surprised to see that English speaking Canada was also a rotten-to-the-core banana republic.

It's no wonder that Quebec wants to separate.

I get the impression that Canadians are pretty much left alone if they stay indoors, keep their mouths shut and give half their paychecks away to support a parallel Mud family while trying to afford their own.

Why didn't you simply name this thread, "Hitler Goddess makes news"?

Sounds like an appropriate name for some Death Metal band. Hitler Goddess is already under house arrest. At 500 pounds they'd have to knock down a wall to get her out and knock down a prison wall to get her in. Certainly not worth it. She's too much a menace to let her loose on society

So true. My grotesquely obese body has kept me a prisoner for many years now. And with this contest, and all, it is only getting worse. I am now officially up to 550 pounds. But, when it is all over, and after I show Pixi who the true queen of fat is, I plan to be a guest on the Maury Povich show and allow that nice Jewish fellow to help me with my problem 😞

Thexder 3D wins VNN's "Energizer Bunny Of Hate" award. Hearty Congratulations, Thexder 3D!

"He is just the Energizer Bunny of hate," Warman says.

Warman filed a complaint about Winnicki to the Canadian Human Rights Commission in 2003 over messages posted on Winnicki's website.

Winnicki had a straightforward warning for Jews: "We're coming for you . . . and your servile dogs, too."

That website disappeared, but Winnicki continued to write on a site called Vanguard News Network Forum.

On the forum, Winnicki blamed Jews, blacks, gays and evangelical Christians for a variety of social problems.

His writings alarmed a collection of anti-hate groups and last summer the Friends of Simon Wiesenthal Centre for Holocaust Studies, the Africa Canadian Legal Clinic and the Guelph Multicultural Centre joined Warman and the London Association for the Elimination of Hate in calling for an investigation by police.

London police would only confirm they have launched an investigation.

Like the other white supremacist leaders in London, Winnicki has another side.

He's a digital artist selling three-dimensional designs on the Internet.

In that rarified world, Winnicki is known for his whimsical creations and helping others.

He uses one of the designs, Thexder 3D, as his name on white supremacist postings.

Winnicki refuses to be interviewed by The Free Press unless he can first debate the superiority of the white race.

"Why don't you race-mixing, multi-culti, love-you-all morons put your money where your mouth is? (LOL) And if you really want to experience multiculturalism, why don't you go live in the Democratic Republic of Congo or Zimbabwe? There you can experience brotherly love for real. You may end up getting boiled in a pot, but at least you won't be a racist."

In September, Winnicki was charged with carrying a concealed weapon, having weapons at a public meeting and possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose after Toronto police found throwing knives, a bow and arrow and a bulletproof vest in a car heading to a rally in support of Holocaust-denier Ernst Zundel.

The case is still before the courts.
